

OFFICIAL REPORTS OF VLADIVOSTOK SHOOTING LACKING

Unofficial Reports Received Are Widely at Variance—Report Received from Consul McGowan—Also Version of Japanese Officer Given—Will Investigate Carefully

TOKIO, Jan. 12.—While official reports concerning the shooting of an officer of the American cruiser Albany at Vladivostok still are lacking, unofficial accounts, widely at variance as to the circumstances and the exact time it occurred, continue to be received. One of these is that the officer was passing along a street towards his ship when he was shot in the back by a Japanese sentry, without provocation, from a distance of six feet.

Some time after the shooting occurred, according to another report, an American official informed the Japanese headquarters that the wounded man was Lieutenant W. H. Langdon, chief engineer of the Albany who died after regaining his ship. A press dispatch states that a sentry outside Japanese headquarters at 4:20 o'clock on the morning of January 8 observed a foreigner using an electric torch. He challenged him three times receiving no reply. The foreigner walked away unconcerned and the sentry pursued him thirty yards to ask whether he was an American or Russian. The foreigner replied: "I don't know" and then flashing the torch with his right hand, is said to have drawn a revolver and with his left hand fired at the sentry who returned the fire. The foreigner ran off feeling. Other soldiers soon collected and found a pistol and a stream of blood.

Careful Investigation Washington, Jan. 12.—Intention of the American government to make a careful investigation of the fatal shooting by a Japanese sentry yesterday at Vladivostok of Lieutenant W. H. Langdon, chief engineer of the cruiser Albany, was evidenced in action taken tonight by two departments of the government.

The state department upon being informed of the bare details of the shooting of Lieutenant Langdon in a report from Consul McGowan at Vladivostok directed the consul to forward a more complete report.

The navy department received two reports of the shooting from Admiral Albert Gleaves, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic Fleet, who said that he planned to leave at noon today aboard the Destroyer Elliott for Shanghai where he will board the Cruiser New Orleans and proceed to Vladivostok to make an investigation. Dispatches to both departments emphasized that Japanese officials at the Russian port were showing every evidence of regret over the shooting. Consul McGowan reported that the Japanese consul general had called upon him and expressed his "profound regret."

Admiral Gleaves in his dispatches said the Japanese officials were much concerned and had made frequent calls offering every assistance within their power. Consul McGowan's report announced its receipt of a report from Consul McGowan in the following statement:

"The shooting of Lieutenant W. H. Langdon, an engineer officer of the American cruiser Albany at Vladivostok, by a Japanese sentry on January 8, was reported to the department of state today. The telegram which was from American Consul McGowan, Vladivostok, reported that the Japanese consul general at Vladivostok had called on him to express his profound regret.

Admiral Gleaves in his first report, received at the navy department late today, gave preliminary details as to the shooting of Lieutenant Langdon. He reported that the lieutenant was returning to his ship and was in front of Japanese division headquarters, near the arch on Peter the Great square, when his death occurred a few hours later.

Japanese Version The admiral in a second report received today said:

"Japanese officer reports as follows: "Sentry claims his suspicions were aroused by seeing a foreigner flashing a hand lamp, that he ran across the street and called him to halt, and that he came near the foreigner fired one revolver shot at him; that he fired his rifle and then the foreigner fired two more shots and sentry fired one more shot. Sentry claims that he ran back for the guard, but that the foreigner had gone when the sentry and guard returned. Langdon's statement is as follows:

"That he was returning to ship using a hand lamp and when he was on the sidewalk on the side opposite to the Japanese division headquarters, the sentry ran across the street taking the position charge bayonets, to the left and about six feet in front of him; that he halted until the sentry said: 'Amerikanski' to which he replied that he was and walked on past the sentry, that when he was about six feet beyond the sentry fired at him the ball striking him in the back at which

WILL INVESTIGATE FLIGHT OF LOST NAVAL OFFICERS

Will Probe Alleged Sale Of Letters to Newspapers

SAYS FARRELL CAN GET VINDICATION

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Secretary Daniels announced tonight that a court of inquiry would be convened at the Rockaway, N. Y., air station upon the arrival there of Lieutenants Hinton, Farrell and Kloor, to inquire into all the circumstances of the balloon flight which carried the three officers from Rockaway to the shores of Hudson Bay.

The court of inquiry, Mr. Daniels said, will pay particular attention to the reported sale to newspapers and news syndicates of letters from the three officers. Another subject of inquiry the secretary said would be the physical clash yesterday at Mattice, Ont., between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton, growing out of the publication of letters written by the latter to his wife and published by a New York paper.

Investigate Sale of Letters. The court in its investigation of the reported sale of the aeronauts' letters, Mr. Daniels said, probably will inquire into rumors that letters were offered for sale by persons in the naval service. Also reports that the balloon left Rockaway with insufficient provisions and no supplies and no firearms on board will be carefully investigated, the secretary added.

Mr. Daniels was asked if Lieutenant Farrell would have an opportunity to ask the court to investigate any charges he thought might have been made by brother officers detrimental to his character in connection with the exploit.

"If Lieutenant Farrell thinks that anything has been said injurious to his reputation as an officer he can present it to this court," Mr. Daniels replied. "If I find that this court has not the power to vindicate him in the event that he sustains his contentions, a special court can be convened for that purpose."

The naval secretary earlier in the day had "deplored" the clash between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton.

JOHN W. DALY'S LIFE ENDS FROM HEART DISEASE ATTACK

Dropped Dead at Entrance to Kansas City Hotel

LONG PROMINENT IN RAILROAD WORLD

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 12.—John W. Daly, general western agent of the New York Central lines, with headquarters in Chicago, died tonight at the Twelfth street entrance of the Muehlbach hotel. A taxicab chauffeur who saw Mr. Daly fall, picked him up and put him on his feet. He gasped, "Oh my heart," and fell again. He died not speaking after that.

A letter in Mr. Daly's pocket from J. H. Love, Kansas City freight agent of the New York Central, had been received by him yesterday in Omaha. It stated that Mr. Love had made reservations for Mr. Daly at the Muehlbach. Mr. Daly, however, had not claimed the reservation.

John W. Daly was born in Canton, Ills., fifty-two years ago. He started railroad work as a telegraph operator for the Wabash and Santa Fe roads in Horton, Kansas. He came to Chicago as yard clerk for the Wisconsin Central and then became chief clerk to W. W. Kent, general passenger agent of the Jacksonville & South-eastern.

Mr. Daly was appointed southern passenger agent for the Lake Shore in Cincinnati in 1902, general eastern passenger agent for the same road in Buffalo in 1905, chief assistant general passenger agent for the New York Central lines the same year and in 1908 was appointed general passenger agent of the Lake Shore.

In 1911 he succeeded Warren J. Lynch as passenger traffic manager of the New York Central lines with headquarters in Chicago. He was a brother of C. F. Daly, vice-president of the New York Central lines.

The deceased was married in 1906 to Miss Elizabeth Robertson of Jacksonville.

News of the death of Mr. Daly reached Jacksonville Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, in a special train from the Chicago Tribune to the Jacksonville Tribune. This message was conveyed to Col. John R. Robertson, brother-in-law of the deceased. Col. Robertson, who was about to leave for Kansas City, telephoned his sister in Chicago but was unable to gain additional facts, as news of Mr. Daly's death had been received in Chicago only a short time previous. Col. Robertson left for Kansas City on the midnight train, and will therefore assist with the funeral arrangements.

John W. Daly came to Jacksonville in the early '90's, as chief clerk for W. W. Kent. Subsequently when the South-eastern line was divided, he became general passenger agent for the J. & S. E. and held that position until 1902. After leaving this city his rise was rapid and he became one of the best known passenger traffic men in the United States. Mr. Daly was a member of Jacksonville Lodge No. 682, of the Elks, and of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. He was a member of the Knights Templar, together with other Masonic bodies. During his residence here, he was unusually popular in business and social circles, and many friends have been interested in observing his successful career.

Mrs. Daly who prior to her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Robertson, survives him together with two children.

REPUBLICANS ARE PLANNING TO FRAME PERMANENT TARIFF

Fordney Says They Will Stand by Their Declaration

GERMANS WORKING FOR LOW WAGES

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Republican leaders in congress propose to frame a workable permanent tariff law despite the chaotic foreign exchange situation and the uncertainties of foreign labor conditions. Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee declared today during discussion of a revision of the Underwood act. Witnesses before the committee called attention to what they described as a concerted effort on the part of the Europeans, especially English and Germans to rush their products to America as a means of hastening a readjustment of adverse rates. The statements brought from Representative Garner, Democrat, Texas, a question as to whether it were possible at present to draft a law which would meet future conditions, assuming exchange rates would be restored to an equilibrium within a year or two.

"I think it will be impossible," H. L. Henry, a Geneva, N. Y., manufacturer replied. "To draft a tariff that will be workable under the present conditions. Future readjustments cannot be forecast and rates that may be good now will serve no purpose later on."

"You spoke a parable there," said Mr. Garner, "but our Republican friends insist that we should go ahead. They will attempt the impossible."

Says They Are Going to Do It. Mr. Garner's statement was cut short by Mr. Fordney who interjected:

"We stand on our declaration. It is our plan to frame a new tariff and we are going to do it. The exchange situation of course presents difficulties, but we think those can be surmounted."

Throughout the day a stream of witnesses each of whom was allotted 10 minutes flowed by the big semi-circular committee bench and requested higher tariff rates. As a rule they suggested a revival of the Payne-Aldrich tariff schedules which they said ought to shield them from the ever-increasing dumping of European manufactures on markets of the United States.

Particular attention was given by the witnesses to the discussion of the rapid recovery of German industries from the wreckage of the war. Those industries, it was testified have recuperated more rapidly than American business men have ever believed possible and the committee was urged to prepare a barrier against the influx anticipated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—With the department of state and labor still unsettled over the disposition of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, who arrived at Newport News last week as a stowaway without a passport, it was indicated today that President Wilson would leave to his cabinet officers the ironing out of the inter-departmental difficulties which have arisen over the case.

Should Secretary of Labor Wilson continue to show no disposition to take cognizance of the request of the acting secretary of state, Davis, that O'Callaghan be deported, the department of justice may be asked to take a hand in shaping that the order of the secretary of state is executed it was said.

FIGHTING OFFICERS KISS AND MAKE UP COMMANDER SAYS

Lieutenant Kloor Issues Statement Wednesday

SAYS ALL ARE BEST OF FRIENDS

(By The Associated Press) MATTICE, Ontario, Jan. 12.—The three American naval balloonists who arrived here yesterday from Moose Factory near where they descended Dec. 14, left tonight for Coorane on the east bound Canadian National Express.

The flight between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton shortly after their arrival here yesterday afternoon was ascribed in a statement issued before their departure tonight to overwrought minds, induced "by their hardships and grueling struggles that had to be endured on the trip over the trail from Moose Factory."

Little Differences. The statement, presented to newspapermen by Lieutenant Kloor was, he said, at the direction of Hinton and Farrell who had mended their differences. The three officers went together in the private car of H. B. Way, divisional superintendent of the Canadian National Railways when the document was drawn.

"On several occasions during the trip," the statement said, "after a long and tiresome time, one or two of us would become grouchy and at the slightest invitation would make a fuss. These quarrels were only on the spur of the moment and were just temporary disagreements. Almost as quickly as they would start they would end, leaving all hands as usual the best and strongest of friends."

"I also wish to state that as commander of the balloon, I flew to Moose Factory. I had perfect liberty to select any of the officers at the station to accompany me, on authorization from the commanding officer. In picking my passengers Lieutenant Hinton and Lieutenant Farrell, I selected them because they were two of my best friends and themselves good comrades."

Ready to Make Sacrifice. "During the trip all of us have been ready to make sacrifices for one another without partiality. We have fought our battles as to shipmates and in accordance with the traditions of the United States navy. We have done our best to uphold our own dignity as well as that of the service. We always will be brothers."

"Such petty quarrels as may have occurred will not lessen our affection for one another. Today after the first real rest since we left Moose Factory our difficulties patched up and our friendship renewed, we cannot emphasize too strongly that there is not, and has not been, any misunderstanding in our party other than of a passing nature."

The statement was signed by Lieutenant Kloor. Hinton admitted he had written the letter that caused the quarrel, but declared he had not intended it for publication and was sorry.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE REFUSED TO MINISTRY OF PREMIER LEYGUES

Vote Largest Recorded Against Government Since Foundation of the Third Republic—Deputy Bonneval Says That the Majority Wants An Explanation of Policies

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Jan. 12.—The ministry of Premier Georges Leygues went down to defeat today. Its fall came as the result of its opponents' refusal to grant the cabinet confidence for a week or ten days without a discussion of its policies until after the meeting of the premier with the British premier, David Lloyd George, and the Italian foreign minister, Count Sforza, on Jan. 19, to discuss outstanding questions, including German disarmament and reparations. The vote, 463 to 125, was the largest ballot cast against a French government since the foundation of the third republic.

Immediately after the vote of lack of confidence Premier Leygues went to the Elysee Palace and handed Premier Millerand the collective resignation of his ministry.

The vote came as the culmination of lobby maneuvers which began after the Geneva conference of the league of nations and the secession from the government supporters, ranks of the national "blois" which insisted that the premier accept discussion of the questions to come up at the meeting on January 19, to take the chamber's advice and act upon its suggestions.

M. Leygues had repeatedly announced that he would not accept discussion or interpellations on the financial and foreign policy of the cabinet until he had met Mr. Lloyd George and Count Sforza and in caucuses of all the parties this morning the leaders decided to force the issue and insist upon immediate discussion of the questions.

Must Explain Policies. Deputy Bonneval's announcement that the Republican majority could no longer grant confidence to the government in a blind manner and that the premier must explain the government's policies, seemed to stun the cabinet members who sat motionless in their seats as the chamber, in an uproar, demanded an immediate vote which was granted. There was no doubt the government was doomed but great surprise was expressed when the figures were announced Premier Leygues immediately left the chamber to call on the president to hand him the cabinet's resignation.

Speculation already is rife in chamber lobbies on the formation of a new cabinet. There are two well outlined opinions, the first being that the national blois, which is not reactionary but consists mostly of moderate representations with a sprinkling of radicals and also a few royalist deputies will assume power. Their program is internal reform of the Versailles treaty.

On the other hand, many deputies are sanguine that the date of the "all-star cabinet" is at hand with former President Poincare and former Premiers Viviani, Barthou and Briand in the portfolios of finance, foreign affairs, interior and war.

The long strain thru which the American balloonists have passed must be the explanation for their display of temper and jealousy. So the unpleasant incident should be forgotten in thinking of their experiences and purposes.

ADVISED HIS FRIENDS TO TRY THE GREAT REMEDY DRECO

Found from His Own Experience That It Would Ease Muscular Rheumatism, An Irritated Stomach, Rouse a Sluggish Liver and Overcome Constipation

"My muscles were all twisted up with rheumatism, joints were as stiff as rusty hinges and the pain was so great that I got very little sleep," said Mr. John Hume, who lives at 215 Van Buren St., Peoria, Ill.
"My stomach was upset, I was half nauseated all the time and didn't feel like eating, for nothing I ate seemed to agree with me. My liver was lazy and failed to do its duty causing my whole system to be charged with excess bile and I often felt real light headed."
"I have just finished my first bottle of Dreco and feel 100% better. In fact it has made such a big change in me that I sent several of my friends to buy Dreco. My stomach is in excellent condition, am no longer bilious; don't have any more dizzy spells and bowels are in splendid shape. I sleep like a top, enjoy my meals and feel fine. I strongly recommend this grand remedy, Dreco."
Dreco, the herbal remedy, acts on the stomach and aids in digesting the food; stops formation of gas; relieves constipation; strengthens the kidneys; rouses the liver and relieves biliousness, headaches, bitter taste in the mouth, heartburn, coated tongue, and purifies the blood, thereby banishing rheumatism.
All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Jacksonville, Ill., by Coover Drug Co., and J. F. Shreve.—Adv.

50 Hens Laid 3 Eggs. "A Day. Now Lay 36"

Tells How to Make Idle Hens Produce Money in Winter.

"When I began using Don Sung in December, I was getting only 2 or 3 eggs a day from 50 hens. Within three weeks I was getting from 3 to 4 dozen a day. I shall never be without Don Sung."

J. J. Shumway, Ill.

This 3 or 4 dozen eggs a day, at winter prices, was almost clear profit. Your hens should do as well. It's no trouble to use Don Sung and you risk nothing by trying it under this offer. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed. Improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs than a mild, but potent, mixture of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly cures a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, AILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle and after another one I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. BRITTEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Another Michigan Woman says: "I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GEORGE, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nerves, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

It tells what Edison did while Chairman of the Naval Consulting Board—how he spent months at sea, experimenting and inventing devices for foiling the German submarines.

The bulletin also tells how Edison stood the gaff and kept the price of the New Edison down to bed-rock during the era of high costs and soaring prices. The New Edison has increased in price less than 15% since 1914—part of this increase is war tax. The bulletin also tells Mr. Edison's views on our Budget Plan which makes the New Edison easy to buy.

A World Without Petroleum

ELIMINATE petroleum from the world and modern industry would come to a dead stop.

Lacking that tiny film of mineral oil, continuously applied, and the machinery of the world would groan to a stand-still.

From air compressors to textile spindles, from sewing machines to power house engines, all the machinery of modern life, the machinery which clothes and feeds, and transports mankind, is dependent upon petroleum.

Animal fats and vegetable oils sufficed for lubrication in the era which preceded the industrial age, but only petroleum could supply lubricants in sufficient quantities to keep pace with the development of modern machinery.

In the development of our modern system of lubricating machinery, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has performed an essential service in producing a vast number of highest grade lubricating oils and greases from petroleum.

Another vital service of the Company is the maintenance of a distribution system which delivers its lubricants wherever, and whenever, the need occurs.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) manufactures lubricating oils and greases varying in type and consistency to meet the requirements of the innumerable machines which our commercial age requires.

Only a highly specialized and intensively developed organization could give to the people of the Middle West the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The customer who buys a pound of grease, a quart of oil, or a gallon of gasoline, is getting the result of the best effort of 23,000 loyal, efficient, highly trained men and women who make up the personnel of this organization.

"Estate," the Quality Stove

Quality is an overworked word. Almost every dealer in every line claims that his is the real quality product, and the term has thus lost much of its force.

In the case of many manufactured articles, the quality can readily be determined by an examination of the material and workmanship.

Not so with stoves. Almost all makes of stoves are very similar in external appearance—their performance and durability can only be determined by an actual test.

The Estate line has met this test. We are justified in calling it "the quality line."

It is no common thing to hear of an Estate Stove that has been handed down from mother to daughter through three generations and still giving satisfaction.

That's how this stove becomes in truth an "estate," how it has earned its right to the title—

Miss Ferguson to Wed Mr. Baird Gunn.
A very delightful party was given Wednesday night by Mrs. Grant Ferguson and Mrs. Doris Foreth, at the home of Mrs. Anna Ferguson on South Church street. It was an important social event because of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Irene Ferguson and Mr. Baird Gunn. When the guests assembled in the dining room they found pretty decorations of red and white supplemented by the foliage of ferns. Streamers reached from the chandelier to each plate and attached to tiny hearts bearing the initials "F" and "G." Then the secret was out, for the guests had not previously known that they were attending an announcement party.

Following the serving of the excellent supper there were games and other amusements, prizes going to Mrs. Ella Suiter and Miss Dorothy O'Neal.

ILLINOIS WILL PLAY M'KENDREE

Fast Southern Team Will Play Two Games Friday and Saturday—Split Even Here Last Year.

Coach Harmon announced last night that McKendree College would play Illinois two games in David Prince gymnasium Friday and Saturday evenings.

McKendree played two games here last year and they were two of the best games seen here during the season. Illinois won the first game by a score of 19 to 16.

In the second game Jimmy Barnes tossed a basket tying the score as the final whistle sounded. In the overtime period McKendree forged to the front and won by a score of 28 to 25.

The visitors have a number of the veterans of last year's team and will make Illinois play to the limit to win. Illinois has been working hard the past few days. The men are rounding into shape and show great improvement over the form displayed in the opening game. The games promise to be hard fought and Harmon's men are preparing to give McKendree the best they have in stock.

A Real Man, They Call Him

T. M. FAY

Visiting in Jacksonville at the Firemen's convention there is a man. And by that we mean what we say. A man with a great heart, a lovable nature, a man who for the past twenty years has been giving his all that his community might be better.

His name? T. W. Fay, chief of the fire department of the University of Illinois at Urbana.

Forty-five years ago on Easter morning in County Kerry, Ireland, Thomas Wilhelm Fay came into this world, as he has done everything else, smiling. For nine years he made mud pies in the bogs of Ould Ireland. Then realizing that life was a serious matter, he apprenticed himself to a candlemaker and by dint of hard work and saving of his money, he kissed his dear old mother goodbye and set out for the foreign shores of America.

Upon landing in the land of the free, he wandered about, leaving a ray of sunshine in the hearts of those he met until he reached the University of Illinois, where he decided to camp for life.

There by rapid promotions, he found himself first chief at the age of 20, the youngest official of the kind ever known.

Then came the Spanish-American war and with the fire of patriotism burning deeply within him, Mr. Fay or Tommy as he is better known, joined Roosevelt's Rough Riders and fought his way to citation after citation. As a result of the charge up San Juan hill he lay at death's door for weeks and the doctors say that his great faith in the Almighty counsel is all that kept him from becoming an angel before his time.

Another story of his war adventures is told of an old gray headed mother whom Tommy found crying her heart out. Inquiring, he found her boy had turned bandit and would not come home. Fay fearlessly went to the bandit's hangout and started in his low melodious Irish brogue to speak of a mother's love. In a few moments those hard hearted men, bandits all, bowed their heads from shame and wept and our hero led the boy home to his mother.

After the war, Mr. Fay returned to the University and although he has had many flattering offers, from large cities, he is satisfied to father the boys of the great institution of learning, share their troubles, protect them from fire and vice and practice his gentle philosophy, 'Live and Let Live.'

In the past Jacksonville has sent hundreds of students to the University of Illinois and not one of them but what came home singing the praises of this great little man.

Let us say a prayer for such a man, our hats off to Thomas Wilhelm Fay.

BEGINS CAMPAIGN TO IMPROVE SERVICE

American Railway Express Holds Series of Meetings to Place Business on Pre-War Basis—Local Employees met Tuesday Night.

Some means has long been felt necessary to expedite the placing of the express business of the country on its pre-war efficiency basis. Beginning Jan. 11, at all offices the size of Jacksonville or larger meeting were held on the same date, and the plan called the "Right Way Plan" was explained to employees.

This meeting was held at the city office of the American Railway Express Co., on West State street at which were present all local employees. A. D. Baldwin of Terre Haute, Ind., acting under J. C. Graebing, superintendent, Terre Haute, Ind., assisted Agent Eyre in the program of speaking and contributed a valuable talk on the subject himself.

A number of men were called on for short talks and the men showed unusual interest in the subject. All present pledged themselves to do all possible to give the people the best service possible and treat the public with courtesy at all times. It was the generally expressed opinion of the speakers that now that the express rates have been materially increased the public was entitled to the best of service that they might the more readily feel that they were "getting their money's worth."

After the business meeting all repaired to the Eagle hall and with the wives and girls, enjoyed a dance until midnight. Refreshments were served and all went home feeling that they had put in a most profitable and enjoyable evening.

BESS PYATT BOXELL DIES IN MARION

Mrs. Grace P. Powell, J. Wesley Robertson and Miss Ellie Pyatt left on the 12:20 Wabash this morning to attend the funeral of Miss Pyatt Boxell to be held Friday afternoon.

Shortly after Christmas Mrs. Boxell was taken very ill with pneumonia, and New Year's day Miss Ellie Pyatt went to the bedside of her sister, she seemed to be in fair way for rapid recovery and Miss Pyatt returned home Monday.

Late Tuesday night James Pyatt received a long distance telephone message telling of Mrs. Boxell's change for the worse, and he left on the midnight train for Marion, Indiana, her home.

A message received yesterday forenoon from Walton Boxell, conveyed the sad information that Mrs. Boxell had in the early morning, Eugene Pyatt and Mrs. Kate Robertson will leave today to attend the funeral.

Deceased was the youngest of the children of John C. and Mary Belle Pyatt, deceased, and was reared in this city, graduating from the high school in the class of 1914. The following year she taught in the city schools.

Bess Pyatt was married June 7, 1916 to Walton Boxell then residing in this city. Soon afterward they moved to Marion, Ind., where they have since made their home. They have no children.

JUDGE PHONE SERVICE BY COMPARISON

English Telephone System Inadequate Avers British Critic—Lauds America's Efficiency.

"One of the best methods of judging the merits or faults of telephone service is by comparison," said Mr. Taylor manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, in discussing the present telephone situation in general.

"While it is true to a certain extent that the effects of the war impaired the service, the situation has been greatly improved and pre-war standards have been practically regained. To value and appreciate our local and long distance service it is only necessary to compare it with service elsewhere—for example—telephone communication in England."

"A striking example of the relative stages of telephone development in the two countries was recently illustrated in a series of articles prepared by a special correspondent of the London Times after making a comprehensive survey of existing telephone conditions in America and England. The articles which appeared in the Times extolled the excellence of the American telephone system and lamented upon the limitation placed on British business because of the lack of an adequate telephone system. The articles were the subject of considerable editorial comment throughout England."

War Affects Telephone Service. Comparing telephone service in the United States with England the Times correspondent says:

"Before the war the American telephone system had been developed ahead of the public demand there was virtually no delay in meeting the wants of new customers, and the rapidity and accuracy of the service, both local and long distance, were maintained at standards simply unimagined to the European. The war has caused a setback, which, tho it is severe, is only a passing phase; the technical organization which has built up such a remarkable system as the American telephone system is well equipped to overcome the difficulties caused by suspension of construction and dispersal of expert staff arising from the war."

"The American rapid suburban telephone service seems like magic to the visitors from England. It has been run like this for the last twenty years, and the long distance service proper is very little less rapid between important cities. The delay between New York and Philadelphia, Boston, Washington, Chicago, rarely reaches ten minutes, and a large proportion of such calls are completed in three to five minutes."

"The Postoffice has had a monopoly of long-distance telephony in Great Britain for twenty-five years, and has not yet learned that when a telephone call is long delayed its purpose is often gone altogether."

Twelve Million Telephones. The great development of the American telephone system has occurred during the past twenty years, the number of stations in service having increased from less than a million in 1900 to twelve million in 1920. The system gives employment to over 210,000 people, of whom more than 20,000 are engaged in the manufacture of telephone apparatus, and the remainder are occupied in the construction, maintenance, operation, and commercial development of the telephone system. These figures give some idea of the importance of the industry of which Great Britain has been deprived by the repressive effect of government monopoly; proportionately to population Great Britain is as good a field for the development of the telephone as America—indeed, in some respects a better one.

"For many years past the number of telephone calls in the United States has exceeded the number of letters—striking proof of the really universal nature of the telephone service."

HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

Now eats everything in sight and romps with playmates.

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constitution and indigestion. Nothing did him any good until we tried Mils Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and his outgrowth has almost doubled. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before."—Wm. DO NOT SQUEEZE BLACK-HEADS—DISSOLVE THEM

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation—then, too, after they have become hard you cannot get all of them out. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dirt and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of caloric powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition—anyone troubled with these unsightly blemishes should try this simple method.

1921 INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Numerous inquiries have been received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue concerning the items to be included under "gross income" in the 1920 income tax returns. Correct understanding of the term is of paramount importance to the taxpayer, as it is the basis upon which the return is made.

Income is defined by the revenue act to include "gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or personal compensation, or from professions, vocations, trades, business, commerce, or sales or dealing in property; also interest, rents, dividends, securities, or in the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, and income derived from any source whatever." Practically every dollar received by the taxpayer during the year 1920 must be shown in his return as gross income. In arriving at net income, upon which the tax is assessed, the taxpayer is allowed certain specified deductions, such as business expenses, losses, and depreciation, which will be fully explained later.

Taxpayers may be divided into four general classes—the wage earner or salaried class, business, professional, and agricultural. Any form of compensation for personal service rendered by the wage earner is income, including salaries, wages, commissions, fees and bonuses, pensions, paid to retired employees and tips. Payment for personal services may be paid for partly in cash and partly in board and lodging. In this event a fair value must be placed on the room and meals, and the amount reported as income.

Promissory notes received in payment for services, and not merely as income to the amount of their fair market value. When services are paid for in something other than money, the fair market value of the thing taken in payment is the amount to be included as income.

If the services were rendered at a stipulated price, in the absence of evidence to the contrary such price will be presumed to be the fair value of the compensation received. Compensation credited to a taxpayer's account and subject to withdrawal must be reported as income whether actually received or not.

The gross income of the usual business consists of the gross profit on sales, together with income from other sources. The return must show the gross sales, purchases, and cost of goods sold. To reflect net income correctly and to ascertain gross income inventories are necessary at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

The lawyer, doctor, architect, actor, author, dentist, clergyman, and other professional men must include in his return of gross income all fees, salaries, and other compensation for professional services. Return by Farmers. The farmer is required to report as gross income all profits derived from the sale or exchange of farm products, including crops and live stock whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold. Where farm produce is exchanged for groceries, merchandise, or other articles the fair market value of the article must be reported as income. A farmer who rents his farm on the crop-share basis must report such income for the year in which the crops are sold. Profit derived from the sale or rental of farm lands must be reported.

Within the meaning of the revenue act the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit and truck farms; also ranches, plantations, and all land used for farming operation. Individuals, partnerships, or corporations that operate or manage farms for profit, either as owners or tenants, are designated farmers.

Every taxpayer is required to include in his return of gross income the following items:

Interest received on notes and deposits in banks, including savings banks.

Cash dividend on stock. The supreme court decided in March 1920, that stock dividends are not taxable. Profits from the sale of such stock, however, are taxable income for the year in which received. Only dividends paid out of earnings or profits accrued since March 1, 1913, are taxed.

Profits received from the sale of property, real or personal. If the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, the profit is based on the difference between the selling price and the fair market price or value as of March 1, 1913.

Partnership profits; partnerships as such are not subject to the income tax, but each individual partner must pay a tax on the income from such partnership. Partnerships are required to render a return on form 1065.

Royalties from mines, oil and gas wells, copyrights and franchises. In come received from fiduciaries; that is, amounts received from incomes of estates, trusts, etc., thru trustees, administrators and executors.

WARNING! DIPHTHERIA SCARE!

As long as there are a few cases of diphtheria in the city, I suggest that it would be very wise if every person who has a sore throat would consult a physician without delay. Even a slight soreness may develop into diphtheria and this is a health precaution which should be taken in order to prevent the spread of the disease among friends and subsequently thruout the city and county.

City Health Physician.

BODY OF WOMAN

FOND IN KITCHEN
Muscatine, Ia., Jan. 11.—The body of Mrs. Jane Speers, 57 years old was found in the smoke filled kitchen of her farm home at Resley's Lake, near Atalissa, late yesterday afternoon. When found by her brother, Lucius Healy, with whom she made her home, the body was burned almost beyond recognition.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 11.—Northwest Missouri tobacco growers disposed of the 1920 crop at a sale at Weston, Mo., today. More than 250,000 pounds brought an average of less than 14 cents a pound.
The growers said it cost them 20 to 25 cents a pound to produce the crop.

Daily Market Report

SHARP UPTURN IN WHEAT MARKET

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Evidence of competition between millers and exporters led to a sharp upturn in the wheat market today. Prices at the finish, although unsettled, were 3½ to 4½c net higher with March $1.82 to $1.82½ and May $1.72½ to $1.73. Corn gained ½c to ¾c, oats ½c to ¾c and provisions 10c to 30c. On the advance wheat for May delivery touched the highest price yet this season. An apparent pause in export buying early in the day had a transient bearish influence and so too did gossip that the Argentine export tax would be removed. Considerable fresh export business in the United States developed during the last part of the day. Gossip that Texas mills were after wheat in Kansas and that our demand showed improvement were additional bullish factors.
Corn and oats swayed with wheat advances but were checked by heavy hedging sales of corn. On the other hand, export buying of corn continued. Higher quotations on hogs and cereals gave a lift to provisions.

STATE FIRE MARSHAL MADE ADDRESS HERE

ORGANIZED PREVENTION WORK HIS THEME

Practical Subjects Discussed at Second Day's Session of Firemen's Association — Banquet Held at Night.

The principal address of the second day's session of the Illinois Firemen's association was given by State Fire Marshal John G. Gamber of Springfield. This address was given at the afternoon session and was of practical value. The association went on record as favoring the reappointment of Mr. Gamber to his present position.

At the close of the afternoon session the delegates adjourned to the school for the night, where an exhibit was given in their honor. In the evening the annual banquet took place at Grace M. E. church. The day's event came to a close with the special vaudeville program given at the Grand Opera house commencing at 11 o'clock.

The announced program for the morning session included the following topics:

"State Wide Platoon for Firemen"—John E. Marsh, Secretary, National Firemen's Association, Evanston.

Discussion led by: William Hable, Chief, Elgin; S. T. Lowery, vice president, L. P. A., Decatur.

"Every Day Advice to Owners of Small Plants Equipped With a Sprinkler System"—James Campo, Battalion Chief, Chicago.

Discussion led by: M. S. Phillips, Chief, Chicago Heights; A. N. Hoffert, Chief, Evanston; "Relation of Firemen to Investigation"—Harry Moss, Chicago, Special Agent, National Fire Underwriters.

Discussion led by: Otto H. Reiche, Chief, Naperville; Edward L. Dillner, Vice President, L. P. A., Dalton.

Address by State Senator Otis P. Glenn, of Murphysboro.

In the afternoon Horace H. Bancroft, former mayor, discussed the subject: "Why Firemen Should Be Treated Like Other Men." This subject developed a line of argument in support of the platoon system, which makes it possible for firemen to have some home life.

Without such a system they spend 24 hours a day on duty. Prof. Stymates of Clinton discussed "The Two Greatest Problems before the Firemen's Association." The address of John G. Gamber, state fire marshal was the feature of the afternoon. Mr. Gamber having as his theme, "Organization and Legislation."

The firemen adjourned shortly before 11 o'clock to go to the school for the night, where a program had been arranged for their entertainment by St. Woolson. There were exhibits of work done in the manual training department in the corridors and the visitors assembled in the parlor. Mr. Woolson made a brief statement to indicate what is attempted in various departments of the school.

Then several literary numbers were given by the pupils, all receiving themselves with credit. A larger portion of the program was devoted to music. No. 2 Can 29c

LARGE AUDIENCE AT NORTHMINSTER CHURCH

Dr. Spoonst Heard in Address From Cattle Ranch to Pulpit—Special Music Is Inspiration to Meeting—Today's Services.

An audience which completely filled the auditorium was present at Northminster church Wednesday evening, when Dr. W. E. Spoonst delivered his great lecture on "From Cattle Ranch to Pulpit." The song service was of especially inspiring nature, and the large choir under the direction of Mr. Seniff is doing great work. A chorus of fifteen men sang several selections last night which were heard with pleasure by the audience. Mr. Seniff sang a solo, "Don't Forget Jesus."

It was announced that tonight Dr. C. H. M. Graves of Springfield will occupy the pulpit, and will preach on "The Unpardonable Sin." Friday night Dr. Spoonst will deliver a sermon from a text in Revelations. Saturday there will be a special service for children, led by Mr. Seniff.

This afternoon there will be a special meeting for the "Do Right" chorus at the church. This will be held at 4 o'clock or soon after the close of school.

A brief outline of Mr. Spoonst's interesting lecture is given. He said in part: "My ancestors went to Texas from Germany in the early days. They settled in a land where the Indians frequently made raids on the white people and where life was a constant battle to survive. In my childhood days we lived in a region where there were no schools, and the only schooling I had up to the age of 27 years was three months in a country school."

"In my cowboy days we used to drive our cows to Nebraska to the free lands. We would take a wagon load of supplies and start in February."

"We had a good time on those trips, in spite of the hardships. We had a queer idea of what constitutes a good time, tho."

"In course of time I was married and embarked in the grocery business and was employed to load and unload cotton. One day one of the boys asked me to go to a revival down by the stream. I rode my horse to that meeting and before I reached the spot I heard them singing a song my mother used to sing, 'Jesus Lover of My Soul.' I sat down and listened to my first sermon and was converted."

The minister described in detail the days which followed his decision to enter the ministry and left no doubt in the minds of those present as to the obstacles he surmounted to reach his goal. He also told of the call which came at the end of his college career, which he accepted and which carried with it a salary of $600 annually. He told of his later studies and of the various charges he has filled during his years as a minister of the gospel. Altogether it was a very inspirational address and was heard with deep interest by the audience. The service closed with a prayer by the pastor.

JESS HENRY HELD SALE WEDNESDAY

Closed Out Stock on Farm He Has Been Renting From Brother Frank Henry—Latter Returns from Dakota and Will Occupy Farm.

J. L. Henry held a sale of stock at his barn in Woodson yesterday when he disposed of stock which he had on the farm of his brother Frank Henry which he has been renting.

There was a large crowd at the sale and prices generally were satisfactory. C. J. Wright was the auctioneer and Frank Flynn served as clerk. The Ladies' Aid of Woodson Christian church served lunch in the basement of the church which is near the barn where the sale was held and realized a goodly sum from their venture. PUPIL AT SCHOOL FOR BLIND FALLS TO DEATH

Kasper Hildebrandt, Aged 11 Years, Instantly Killed in Fall From Window—First Fatal Accident in Institutions History.

Kasper Hildebrandt, aged 11 years, a pupil at the School for the Blind, was instantly killed about 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by falling from a window in the third story of the main building.

Facts as to the manner in which the accident occurred are lacking as no one saw it. Pupils and teachers were passing in and out of the building at the time and the boy lifeless body was found on the walk shortly after the accident.

The boy struck on his head on the concrete walk and the back of the head was badly crushed and death must have been instantaneous. Drs. Woltman and Baxter, were called but their services were not needed.

Coroner Rose was called and after he had viewed the body it was removed to the Funeral Home of W. W. Gillham and prepared for burial. An inquest will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The dead lad's home was at Morton Grove near Chicago. His parents were notified by Mr. Woolston and no funeral arrangements will be made until word is received from them.

Speaking of the accident last night, R. W. Woolston, managing officer of the institution, said the accident was most regrettable. However, it is one likely to happen with a normal child, and was unavoidable.

It was the first fatality occurring at the institution since it was opened in 1849.

OPEN AIR SCHOOL HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

January 11 was the seventh birthday of the Josephine Milligan school. In honor of the occasion Miss Laura Hammond, the teacher, arranged a lovely birthday party for the children. Several friends of the school, who have been interested in its welfare and have done so much for the children, were guests of the school for dinner. A beautiful bouquet of red carnations and ferns gave a festive appearance to the dining room and each table had a birthday cake with seven candles, the gift of Mrs. A. L. /dams. The party was a most happy one and every child, even the very tiniest one, realized that it was a party for the school's birthday and not any of the pupils.
